Dated Ogden City, Weber County, Utah, this 10th day of January, 1920.

When Olive Thomas comes to the Ogden theater next Sunday in her new Selznick picture, "Out Yonder, local fans will see the dainty artiste in a role which is in striking contrast to anything she has done before.

As the daughter of a lighthouse keeper on a lonely reef "somewhere in the Atlantic," Miss Thomas is called upon to display her versatility and dramatic talents in a most im pressive and unusual way. The play tells of the love of Edward Elmer, a wealthy society man, for "Flotsam," a little waif of the sea, sam returns his love but many obstacles must be overcome before the two win ultimate happiness. "Out Yonder" is said to be replete with colorful atmosphere and thrilling situations. There is a death-struggle in the lighthouse which, by sheer realism, holds its audience speelbound. This is said to be one of the most rea listic scenes that the master hand of Director Ralph Ince has yet brought whom he has met by chance. Flot of "Our Yonder" and it is believed that they have created a vehicle in every way worthy of the superb art of Olive Thomas. Charlie Chaplin in "A Night at the Show" and William Dun-
